

OFFICE OF HOMELAND SECURITY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 13, 2008

Media Advisory: Governor's Office of Homeland Security announces grants to improve Los Angeles/Long Beach Port security.

When: Thursday, February 14, 2:00 p.m.

Where: Port of Long Beach, front of Administration Building. 925 Harbor Plaza, Long Beach

Information: On behalf of the Governor OHS Director Matthew Bettenhausen will announce millions of dollars in grant funding to ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach as part of the voter- approved Prop 1B funds to enhance port and transit security. Comments from Director Bettenhausen, Mayor's Antonio Villariagosa and Bob Foster, and port officials regarding ongoing effort by and goals of the Governor and Office of Homeland Security to prevent, respond to, and recover from any disaster and secure California's economy.

Contact: Jay Alan

Deputy Director of Communications, Governor's Office of Homeland Security.

(916) 322-1556 office

(916) 825-6544 mobile

(916) 323-9633 fax

Jay.Alan@ohs.ca.gov

Or

Elaine Jennings

Deputy Director of Special Projects/Communications, Governor's Office of Homeland Security

(916) 324-9661 office

(916) 437-9501 cell

Elaine.Jennings@ohs.ca.gov

#